WENTY YEARS AGO TOMORROW

THE COAST GAZETTE, NOW THE GAZETTE-NEWS WAS FIRST LAUNCHED.

The Coast Gazette issued its first number on Thursday, March 20, 1890. Just twenty years ago tomorrow, the weekly paper was first published at Ormond-on-the-Halfway; later it was moved to Daytona and the name afterwards changed to the Gazette-News. F. A. Mann was the first editor. The subscription price was $2. What the editor says about Ormond when it then appeared is of more than passing interest. We quote as follows:

"The river here is five-eighths of a mile wide, spanned by the first bridge ever thrown across it, connecting the mainland with the peninsula. Upon the latter, facing the city, 'The Ormond' rears its handsome front. It is the finest, best appointed, most thoroughly equipped and justly popular hotel on the Coast south of St. Augustine. As we write tonight its brilliant lights flash across the quiet waters and strains of music mingled with the muffled boom of breakers coming from the beach behind it. Filled to overflowing with guests, who are enjoying themselves on its ample verandas, in its charming rooms or noble reception halls, it is a very model of a winter resort for grave and gay, old and young, who have found it a haven of refuge far from northern chills and storm."

Among the news items of that first issue it appeared that J. E. Francis had recently shipped 100 boxes of fancy oranges, Manager McNary, at the groves was stripping the groves of their delicious fruit; B. W. Amstutz was running a poultry farm; Harrison Bristol has just completed his residence Mr. Carnell, manager of the sub irrigation garden, was making a live success of cultivating cauliflower with sales at $9.00 net per barrel; a brass band for Ormond was a necessity; Capt. J. B. Wardwell was building a dory fourteen feet long that would "draw no water."

The old residents will read the entire issue with extreme interest. It is a single sheet, two page paper and the copy thus preserved was printed on maulin. Even twenty years brings its changes.

RAWLINS AND BLACKWELDER GROW CELERY SUCCESSFULLY.
J. M. Rawlins this morning brought to the Daily News office some handsome specimens of celery grown by the firm, Rawlins & Blackwelder, on Second avenue, Sunnyside Dairy.

This celery surpasses in size and quality anything that has been grown in Daytona, and is in popular demand by the hotel people. As to size it ranges from three to three and one-half dozen per crate. This year the firm will ship about 100 crates, grown from a small piece of land. Those interested in celery growing are cordially invited to visit this farm.

CHRISTIE CAR IN PERFECT CONDITION.

TROUBLE WEDNESDAY CAUSED BY PUMP BEING REVERSED, SAYS MR. CHRISTIE.

Another contender for world's records upon Daytona Beach announced this morning that his car was in perfect condition. This was Walter Christie, of front drive fame, who brought his powerful car of personal design to Daytona Beach to try out against Barney Oldfield with his Benz. The car made poor showings upon its arrival here and last night the entire time between dusk and dawn was spent upon the car. Christie stated this morning that he had located the trouble, saying the pump was reversed.

Another interesting feature in connection with the Christie car is that plucky Ralph DePalma may remain here and drive the car in place of George Robertson who was called to New York yesterday on account of the death of the father of his fiancée. Robertson planned to return, but it is doubtful this morning whether he will return in time or not. Just one little drawback remains to prevent DePalma from trying for records. This is the consent of the Fiat Import Co., of New York, to whom DePalma is under contract, and who ordered the big 200-horse power Fiat shipped back to New York, when notified of the broken piston.

So DePalma was literally robbed of his opportunity to meet Oldfield and achieve records. Christie's car is without doubt one of the fastest speed creations in the world, but misfortune has always pursued Christie when he brought his car here. But Christie has been persistent like all men who achieve results and has again come to Daytona to attempt to make creditable performances. Without doubt a record broken by Christie would meet with popular favor, as he would have earned it, there being perhaps not another instance where such integrity and sticktoitiveness have marked one man, a man of the ability and genius, mechanically, such as is Christie.

But further misfortune seemed to be prevalent when Robertson was called back to New York. However, if Christie's car breaks a record with DePalma at the wheel, two men will have achieved their desires, provided DePalma is allowed to drive the Christie, and if he is not it would seem the height of selfishness by the Fiat people, as DePalma could never make the time on the motor-drome at Los Angeles that he can here on the beach.

Providing DePalma is not allowed to drive the Christie car, he in company with Caleb Bragg, the millionaire amateur of Cincinnati, will leave in the morning for Los Angeles.

Perhaps of all the tributes paid to Barney Oldfield by crowned heads and champion racers, one as much worth while as any, was paid him by a child. Yesterday as Oldfield passed down the street in his big Benz a little boy sitting on the front seat of a buggy with his father looked around, wide-eyed and smiling, and said to the gentleman beside him "Papa, that's Barney Oldfield." The words were simple, but the tone of blended admiration, awe and wonder with which they were uttered would have been a tribute to any of the world's heroes, past or present.

THE YACHT ELMAR AT SOUTH BRIDGE DRAW

James Laughlin, Third, whose yacht Elmar, is tied up at the South Bridge draw, took a party of friends, who have been aboard the yacht, back to Zellwood in his automobile this morning.

Mr. Laughlin will return Monday from Zellwood, accompanied by his wife and sister-in-law and his father, James Laughlin, Jr., and they will spend the balance of the season cruising in Southern waters.

NORRIS' APPEAL FROM DECISION OF THE CHAIR DEFEATED WITH A VICTORY FOR ALLIES.

WASHINGTON, March 19—At noon a point of order against the Norris resolution was sustained by Speaker Cannon and this afternoon he began the reading of an opinion on the question.

A roll call was ordered on Ball-sell's motion to lay on table Norris' appeal from the decision of the Chair which was defeated 164 to 181, which was a victory for the allies.

MONEY FROM FAKE CARNIVAL TURNED OVER TO COMMITTEE

The Civic Department of the Palmetto Club met Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock, in special session, to consider the report of the committee on Island Park, which was as follows:

The Island Park Committee and the Civic Department of the Palmetto Club met on Wednesday evening, March 10, at 7:00 o'clock. It was unanimously decided that the first steps to take is to engage a landscape gardener to make a plan for laying it out as a whole. That the money available should then be expended in filling, grading and beautifying as much of the south end as possible, and that other sections shall be completed as money comes in, working toward the north. And that until money is available for putting a wall around the island, work will be carried on in the center, leaving the natural slope at the edges so there will be no appreciable washing out.

The report was adopted, and the proceeds from the Fake Carnival, $527.60, was placed at the disposal of the joint committee.

There was a large attendance of the club members at this meeting, many valuable suggestions were made and much interest manifested in the work. It was the sense of those present that the work be pushed along as rapidly as possible before the close of the season, so that the winter residents may be encouraged by seeing some results from the efforts that have been made in the interest of the project.

RENDERED UNCONSCIOUS BY FALL FROM BICYCLE

I. M. Springer, a son of Dr. I. M. Springer, of Daytona Beach, had a bad fall from his bicycle last evening, while riding on Peninsula Drive, Seabreeze.

At this writing the cause of the accident is not definitely known, but it is said some part of the wheel gave way, causing the fall.

The young man was rendered unconscious and remain so till nearly morning, but is now reported as doing nicely.

MR. AND MRS. CREAMER ENTERTAIN AT AUTOMOBILE CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Creamer, of New York City, guests at the Princess Isseena, entertained a party of friends at bridge whist at the automobile club house Friday evening.

Five tables were set, and first and consolation prizes were given at each table. After the game a course lunch was served, which was followed by a pleasant dance.

TOM L. JOHNSON IS REPORTED DESPERATELY ILL.

NEW YORK HOTEL EMPLOYEES SAY HE LEFT LAST NIGHT FOR UNKNOWN DETINATION.

JOLLY PARTY ENJOY TWO JOLLY DAYS

A jolly party composed of Mr. and Mrs. James Menzies, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Marriott, Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Wise, all of Detroit; Mrs. Geo. Brooks, Missoula, Mont.; Mrs. Geo. Yates and Mrs. Frank Corbett, of Minneapolis; Mrs. Clark, Miss Zelma and Miss Theda Peters, of Neenah, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leonard, of Newton, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clark, of Baldwinville, N. Y., and Mrs. J. A. Hendricks and daughter, Miss Gladys, chartered the Floridian for a day's outing at the Inlet. The party had the pleasure of entertaining Wm. Van Sickle, of Detroit, who has the honor and distinction of being the youngest 33 degree Mason in the United States, and is also a prominent life insurance man of that city. The weather was perfect and many amusing incidents occurred to make the day memorable. On Thursday, practically the same crowd, with the same boat, spent the day in the upper waters, visiting Knox & Beed's and after a sumptuous repast, amidst song and jest, returned home, voting it two of the happiest days of their lives. Thanks are due Mrs. Menzies, whose name is a synonym for a jolly time, through whose personal efforts the excursions were carried to a happy termination. She, however, had to divide honors with Mr. Van Sickle, who added largely to the pleasure of all.

ENGLISH SPARROWS BEING ELECTROCUTED

E. N. Waldron and others who are agitating the destruction of the English sparrows, may take a hint from what is happening to the birds frequently in front of the Ladas fruit store on Beach street.

Attention was called to seven of the little pests lying dead on the pavement one morning recently, evidently killed by alighting on an exposed electric light wire overhead.

BULLETIN ISSUED THIS FORENOON SAYS NO CHANGE DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS IN THE SENATOR'S CONDITION.

"Senator John W. Daniel's condition remains unchanged this morning. There has been no change in the state of coma during the past twenty-four hours, it being still marked but not profound. TELEPHONE CO. TO CABLE WIRES ON BEACH STREET

A car load of cable has been received by the East Florida Telephone Co., and delivered on the parkage north of the city hall in readiness for use on the new poles lately erected on Beach street and several of the side streets.

There are 12,000 or more feet of cable in this shipment and it is proposed to use it on Beach street from Cedar street to Fairview avenue, and on Orange, Magnolia and Volusia avenues.

J. R. Merritt says he expects to begin the work of putting up this cable next Monday. It will be a great gain over the present system of open wires, as the wires rust out very rapidly in this climate and constant trouble ensues. While the expense of putting in this cable is heavy, it will without doubt be cheaper in the end than the open wire.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation; artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom fleck-ed with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your flie glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms;
see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamons forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering,
"What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,
—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Frut.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid
And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, proficacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you.
The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbukto, and you will be "shown."
Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily paradand the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours.
The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free; the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man runneth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of by-gone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low. A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It is built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient wall.

CORONADO
Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK
A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach.

Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with subtropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road passing Number Nine and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN
Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY
The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

TRYING TO AVERT

FIREMAN'S STRIKE.

CHICAGO, March 19.—A conference between representatives of the brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Commissioners Knapp and Neill, was held this morning in an attempt to get firemen to concede something and thereby avert a strike on forty-nine western roads. The outlook is not hopeful.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

COMPENSATION.

Billie Burke, actress, gets $50,000 a year.

Joyce Denner, a cousin of the actress, gets $700 a year as an accountant.

If money made happiness the actress would be just seventy-one times as happy as the accountant.

But she is not.

Indeed, of the two, Joyce Denner is the happier, and—what is rare in the girl—she knows it.

Here is her bit of philosophy: "I would rather be in my shoes than in Billie's. Every small enjoyment that comes my way I appreciate. Billie would be bored. I have the loveliest kind of time wearing my two or three party frocks, just because I have so few I suppose."

There are few big enjoyments in this world, and they don't last long. Billie Burke may have a little thrill sometimes when an audience rises to her work, but Joyce Denner enjoys the little things that come right along all the time.

The rich have so many diversions they soon get tired of them. They are surfeited, but not satisfied. Luxuries get to be a bore when you grow accustomed to them.

How much, do you think, would Mr. Frohman's Billie Burke be willing to give if she could have a single thrill of that keen appreciation that used to come to her as a simple girl over little things?

Joyce Denner is right. Of course she must work hard and plan and manage, but a new gown means a lot to her. It has cost her so much, and she has so few of them!

Billie Burke's money comes easy, and she has gowns galore and yacht cruises and automobile splurges; but as the bright little cousin says, she is "bored."

Joyce Denner has got Emerson's law of compensation "down to a T."

Everything averages up. Billie Burke has her thousands, but is not happy; Joyce Denner has only her bare hundreds and is as blithe as a bird over her homely plumage and as proud of her little opportunities as she can be.

So many people belong to Joyce's class and yearn to belong to Billie's.

They have only their few hundreds of annual income, and they are envious of those who have their thousands. They spoil their enjoyments of the little things that come to them by their useless repinings after the things they cannot have.

Think over the Joyce Denner philosophy.

Changed the Koreans.

Koreans were quick to quarrel in ancient days and won a bad reputation on this account. At one time, a historian explains, fatal quarrels became so frequent in the country that drastic measures were necessary. A law was promulgated ordering adult males to wear on all occasions a china head-dress shaped like an inverted flower-pot. It was impossible to fight when crowned with this fragile gear, and the penalties for removing it were severe. The first offense entailed fifty blows on the soles of the feet, and the second meant decapitation. This decree had the most soothing effects, the nature of the inhabitants changed as if by magic, and Korea was called the Land of the Morning Calm.

Great Scheme.

"I'm going to marry a girl ten years older than I am," says the philosopher of folly, "so that I can catch up with her by the time I'm fifty."—Cleveland Leader

When John Brown Wouldn't. Pol-Manear is a favorite cast near Balmoral castle and was always held as the special preserve of John Brown, who was the personal attendant of the late Queen Victoria. John was an enthusiastic and inveterate fisher, and often the royal larder was indebted to his prowess for its supplies of spring salmon when the rods of the other fishermen failed to bring them to the bank. It is authentically reported among anglers on Deeside that when the queen wanted John he was immediately at her call except when angling, and at such times she would not disturb him. The tacit understanding between them is said to have arisen in the following fashion: Her majesty one day sent an imperative message to the riverside desiring John to immediately wait upon her.

"Tell her majesty," replied John in his usual Doric, "that I am 'rinnin' a salmon and I canna come."

The messenger came back to him in hot haste, saying that the queen desired to see him the very minute.

"Well, tell her majesty this time that I am 'rinnin' a salmon and I canna come." And that settled it.

Albatross and Magpie.

Birds play a great part in good and bad auguries at sea. The albatross is regarded as a harbinger of good fortune and has been immortalized as such by Coleridge in "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner," whereas the magpie is a bad omen.

A friend of Sir Walter Scott, traveling by coach to London, entered into a conversation with a respectable looking seaman, who remarked: "I wish we may have luck in our journey. There's a magpie."

"And why should that be unlucky?"

"I can't tell you that, but all the world agrees one magpie bodes ill luck, two are not so bad, but three are the evil one himself. I never saw three magpies but twice, and once I nearly lost my vessel, and afterward I fell from my horse and was hurt."

Many seamen still believe in water spirits or sprites. In Bohemia the fishermen are afraid to assist a drowning man for fear of giving offense to the water sprite.

Berthollet and Robespierre.

It is said that the celebrated savant Berthollet in the most dangerous times of the republic sustained his fearless love of truth. Some days prior to the ninth Thermidor a sandy deposit was found in a barrel of brandy intended for the army. The contractors, suspected of poisoning, were immediately arrested, and the scaffold was already prepared. Berthollet, however, examined the brandy and reported it free from all adulteration.

"You dare maintain," said Robespierre to him, "that that brandy does not contain poison?"

As his reply Berthollet drank off a glass, saying, "I never drank so much before."

"You have plenty of courage!" exclaimed Robespierre.

"I had more when I signed my report," replied the chemist, and here the matter terminated.

Fiddling and Skating.

The celebrated violinist Joachim during a winter residence in northern Germany was in the habit of watching the skaters on a fine piece of water beneath his windows until one day it occurred to him to try the exercise himself. As he had never yet donned a pair of skates he put himself into the hands of a man who provided skates and instruction in the art on the brink of the water and was soon equipped and started on the ice, the master leading his pupil.

Finding no difficulty in keeping his balance under these circumstances, Joachim felt sure he could go alone, desired his leader to leave him and the next minute was sprawling on the ice on his back.

"Aha!" said the teacher triumphantly as he raised his prostrate pupil. "You see it is not quite so easy as playing a fiddle!"

The Bridal Wreath.

The bridal wreath is usually formed of myrtle branches in Germany. It is made of orange blossoms in France as well as in the United States. In Italy and the French cantons of Switzerland it is of white roses. In Spain the flowers of which it is composed are red roses and pinks. In the islands of Greece vine leaves serve the purpose, and in Bohemia rosemary is employed. In German Switzerland a crown of artificial flowers takes the place of the wreath.

Not the Usual Kind.

"What a fool exercise fencing must be for women!"

"Why so? I always understood it was fine."

"Here Maude Blinks is taking lessons, and she told me yesterday she was learning how to feint!" — Baltimore American.

Pierce, but from that point north roads were in fair condition. These people are from Kenton, Tenn., and they all agree that if they ever spend another winter in Florida it will be at Kingston and Daytona in preference to West Palm Beach, or any other place in the State.

Among the golfers who have come up for the tournament is A. F. Huston, who has played in the tournaments of Palm Beach, Ormond and St. Augustine. Mr. Huston, who comes from Coatesville, Pa., is accompanied by his wife and the Misses Huston. The party will stay two weeks.

The sale of the Ormond Fourth Day Club was given in the rotunda on Thursday. There was a good attendance and the affair had every appearance of being financially most successful. Mrs. J. D. Price, who was active in the organization of the sale, entertained at dinner afterwards.

The water sports last week were very amusing, as water sports always are. The events included a straight swimming race, a tub race, race with lighted candles, costume race, in which the men swam one way in their own dress and back in women's clothes, the change being made "against time," and a diving contest.

The automobile race on the beach of course brought out many of the guests. Among the gentlemen who took parties in their cars to see the great events were Messrs. E. C. Simmons, N. M. Kaufman, S. R. Passed 'Em On.

A woman, not being aware of the presence of any contagious disease in the house of a friend, visited there one afternoon, taking her little daughter with her.

"Oh, Lucy," exclaimed the friend, intercepting the child, who was about to enter a room next that where the visitors had been received. "you must not go in there! My Johnny, who has the measles, is in that room!"

Whereupon Johnny, who had heard this admonition, called out: "Why, mother, let Lucy come in! I haven't got the measles. How can I have 'em when I gave 'em to sister and brother yesterday?"--Detroit Free Press.

Played For His Wages.

The conductor of a certain band which was rehearsing a piece stopped the music abruptly and frowned at a stout fellow who was putting all the other musicians out. "I say, Hermann," he demanded, "what do you mean by playing a lot of half notes where should be whole notes?"

Hermann lowered his instrument. "Vell," he said, "I make explanations by you. You cut down my wages to half price, don't you?"

The conductor stared in amazement. He had done so, but--

"Und I continues to make der notes mit my instrument, but dey vill be half notes until der wages is put back to whole price. Dat is fair, ain't it?"

Lost Votes.

A parliamentary candidate lost quite a number of votes by making a generous promise to his own wife. He promised his better half that if he were successful at the poll he would buy her a new sealskin coat and hat to match. His wife was so pleased with this kindly offer that she at once went and told all her lady friends about it. Every lady to whom this piece of news was imparted, of course, said to the candidate's wife at once, "Oh, how very nice, dear!" but equally, of course, immediately went off home to her husband and said: "Take care you don't vote for Mr. A. dear. Fancy that stuck up Mrs. A. in a new sealskin while my old one is so shabby!"--London Express.

Corrected.

Visitor--Go to the proprietor and tell him to make my bill out properly and write omelette with two 't's' and not one.

Waiter (a few minutes later)--It's all right now, sir--omelet, 1 shilling; two teas, 2 shillings.--London Tit-Bits.

Eighth Annual Daytona Beach Speed Carnival

Exhibition Races and Time Trials

SPEED TOURNAMENT MARCH 15, 22, 23 AND 24, 1910

GENERAL INFORMATION

An admission fee of 25 cents each day will be charged all spectators within the enclosure to the races, both the exhibition and the record trials. The meet is not conducted as a money-making event, but the small charges are made to help meet the enormous expense of conducting the meets.

A fee of 50 cents will be charged all automobiles and carriages parking west of the clubhouse along Halifax avenue. The Florida East Coast Automobile Association has leased this property for the occasion and will exercise supervision over it.

Parking spaces for automobiles will be provided on the beach at $2.00 per day, or $5.00 for all the events in addition to the regular admission price. These spaces may be purchased in advance at Hankins' Drug store, and the purchasers will be entitled to the spaces which they select, the first applying to have the choice.

The Ocean Beach has been set aside as a race course March 15, and March 22, 23, 24, 25 and 26, 1910, and the Sheriff of Volusia County, and the Florida East Coast Automobile Association jointly will have charge of the same.

Those desiring to obtain privileges of selling refreshments in front of the clubhouse may apply to the Secretary.

No persons except officials will be allowed on the course during the races or while cars are being tried out and anyone disregarding this rule will be subject to arrest.

Owners of dogs are especially requested to keep the animals off the beach, as their presence would endanger the lives of drivers. Dogs found on the beach during the days of the events will be summarily shot.

Only members of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association, their immediate families and a limited number of guests are allowed access to the clubhouse. No male resident of Volusia County is eligible to be a guest.

All races will either start or finish in front of the grand stand.

Grand stand admission will be 25 cents, or boxes holding 6 persons may be secured for $3.00 per day. Tickets for boxes will be on sale at Hankins' drug store.

The Lure of the Arctic.

Polar life brings strange revelations. A man who is a model of amiability at home is a savage in those high latitudes, where Mother Nature and humanity seem bent on revealing their crudest characteristics. When a man goes to the arctic first he dislikes it. If he is caught there one winter he vows to himself that he will never repeat the adventure. Yet when he gets back home he discovers that the "white silence" has a compelling fascination. I have never known a man who could resist the chance to go again, even at a financial loss. After twenty years of experience, if another opportunity came to me, it is doubtful whether any consideration would prevent my taking up the work again. Once the charm of those long months of daylight, the mysterious deathly silence of those long nights, the white glare of that brilliant moonlight across trackless wastes of snow and ice, has been felt a man is unable to resist the siren call of the north that has become more to him than family, home, friends or money. Gladly he takes his life in his hands and fares forth again into those frozen seas.—Captain Edwin Coffin of Ziegler Polar Expedition in National Magazine.

Bear Ague.

"Speaking of 'buck fever,'" said a survey official, "reminds me of 'bear ague.' Never heard of it, eh? Well, I first encountered it in Wrangel narrows, Alaska, a number of years ago. We were on the old surveying steamer Patterson.

"Just as we rounded a point of land not more than 200 yards distant a big black bear was seen on the beach looking at us. Eight men took up rifles at once and were about to shoot when I told them to wait and fire all at once in a volley when I gave the order. They all took careful beads on the beast. 'Ready, fire!' I shouted.

"There was a rattle of musketry as the eight pieces were discharged, and every one looked to see the animal's death throes. There was the bear running up the hill as lively as a jack rabbit. Not a shot had hit him. Bear ague, that's all. Every man's hand was trembling so he couldn't hit a house. Buck fever's nowhere alongside of it."—San Francisco Call.

Her Vocal Selection.

A wedding was recently held which was of the fashionable kind, and there were all sorts of preparations and frills. Among the "features" was a song by a baritone singer of considerable local renown, and just what he was to warble was a matter of considerable discussion.

A little sister six years old of the bride took much interest in the program. "Sis," she said, "I want to sing at your wedding."

"No, dear; you can't sing," was the rejoinder.

"But I can, and I want to," she pleaded.

"What would you sing?" her father asked her.

"Heaven, Look With Pity!" was her rejoinder, and her father hasn't got over it yet.—Kansas City Journal.

Ladies First!

"Scratch a southerner and you find a knightly soul" might be said to be one of the morals of the Chicago Record-Herald story below. The second moral is reasonably obvious:

"What is the reason," began the irritated traveler from the north, "that the trains in this part of the country are always behind time? I have never seen one yet that ran according to its schedule."

"That, sub," replied the dignified Georgian, "is a mattah that is easily explained. It is due to southern chivalry, sub."

"Southern chivalry! Where does that come in?"

"You see, sub, the trains are always late in this country because they wait for the ladies, God bless them!"

The Patient Man.

Mr. Henpeck had hesitated a long while about doing this bold thing, but he felt that now was the time or never. "Dear," he said, in a very timid voice, "I wish you wouldn't call me 'Leo' any more."

"Why not?" demanded his wife explosively. "Leo" is your given name."

"I know, my dear, but it makes my friends laugh when you call me that. I was thinking you might call me 'Job,' just for a pet name."—Catholic Standard and Times.

One Beauty of Classical Music.

Miss Gush—Do you like classical music, Mr. Sourdopp?

Mr. Sourdopp—Yes.

Miss Gush—Oh, I am so glad! Do you not find in it great inspiration, sublime thought and true beauty?

Mr. Sourdopp—Not exactly. I like it because no blithering idiot can beat time to it with his foot.

Matrimony Made Easy.

"Can a fellow marry comfortably on a salary of $500 a year?" asked the young man.

"Sure, he can," replied the sage of Sageville—"that is, provided he has saved his last year's salary and can get his employer to pay the next year's in advance."—Chicago News.

Not Games of Chance.

The Vicar—Is it true, Samuel, that your father allows games of chance to be played at your house? The Boy—There ain't no chance about it, zur—they all cheats!—London Opinion.

Circumstantial Evidence.

"De Villers has quit scorching." "Machine all in?" "Nope; he's dead." "Oh, that doesn't prove anything."—Harper's Weekly.

Rather Venomous.

A tenderfoot who visited the Yosemite in the old days thus related his experience: The stage driver found out that he was seriously afraid of snakes and immediately proceeded to make his hair stand on end.

"Venomous reptiles? You bet. I don't know what reptiles is, but them snakes you can just bet your life is venomous. Why, one day I was comin' down here drivin' a wagon when I catches sight of a snake in the brush all ready for a spring. My horses starts, an' I whips 'em up fast to clear the snake, don't you see, afore he could spring. He makes one clear spring, the snake does, an' he misses the horses."

"That was lucky. But you—you—" "Lucky? You bet your life it was lucky. He missed the horses, the snake did, but he stuck his fangs clean through the wagon."

"You don't say!" "I do say, and maybe you don't believe it, but it's a fact. He stuck his fangs clean through that wagon, an' that wagon is swelled up so bad that we had to leave it by the wayside and take the horses home."

Now They Never Speak.

A coolness growing out of the following conversation has sprung up between Jones and Smith:

"I had a splendid time last night," said Jones. "I spent the evening at a little social gathering at the Goodman mansion."

"Are the Goodmans nice people?" queried Smith.

"Well, I should say so. They are very aristocratic. To get into their circle one must have either a great deal of money or a great deal of genius."

"You don't tell me so! And you say you were there?"

"Yes."

"You were invited, were you?"

"Of course."

"And to be invited a man has to have plenty of money or a great deal of genius?"

"Precisely."

"Well, Jones, I am very glad to hear you have become rich all of a sudden. Lend me $5."—London Answers.

Antiquity of the Water Pump.

The water pump of today is but an improvement on a Grecian invention which first came into use during the reign of Ptolemies Philadelphos and Energetes, 283 to 221 B. C. The name, which is very similar in all languages, is derived from the Greek word pempo, to send or throw. The most ancient description we have of a water pump is by Hero of Alexandria. There is no authentic account of the general use of the pump in Germany previous to the beginning of the sixteenth century. At about that time the endless chain and bucket works for raising water from mines began to be replaced by pumps. In the seventeenth century rotating pumps, like the Pappenham engine, with two pistons, and the Prince Rupert, with one, were first used. Pumps with plunger pistons were invented by Morland, an Englishman, in 1674 and the double acting pump by De la Hire, the French academician.

Retribution.

"Stand up, prisoner," orders the stern judge.

The trembling culprit, who has been found guilty by a jury of his delighted peers, stands.

"Prisoner at the bar," solemnly declares the judge, "you have been convicted of building house after house containing one of these confounded little boxes called 'reception rooms,' in which there is neither room to receive nor hooks to make it a wardrobe. The sentence of the court is that for the next ten years you shall be confined in one of these alleged reception rooms of your own construction and design!"

Immediately the lawyers for the defendant begin work upon an appeal on the ground that a cruel and unusual punishment has been decreed.—Life.

A Big Help.

The lecturer raised his voice with emphatic confidence. "I venture to assert," he said, "that there isn't a man in this audience who has ever done anything to prevent the destruction of our forests."

A modest looking man in the back of the hall stood up.

"I—er—I've shot woodpeckers," he said.—Everybody's.

Makes Some One Happy.

Charles Kingsley thus counseled a friend: "Make it a rule and pray to God to help you to keep it, never, if possible, to lie down at night without being able to say, 'I have made one human being at least a little wiser, a little happier or a little better this day.' You will find it easier than you think and pleasanter."

Ladylike.

A little girl on a train was chewing gum. Not only that, but she insisted on pulling it out in long strings and letting it fall back into her mouth again.

"Mabel," said her mother, in a horrified whisper, "don't do that. Chew your gum like a little lady."—Everybody's.

Webster Made Neat Retort.

As judge made law is now so much discussed, we may recall one of the neatest answers in history, as far, at least, as our own reading goes:

Judge (interrupting Webster's argument)—That is not law.

Webster—It was law until your honor spoke.—Collier's Weekly.

Intercollegiate.

"Not that I love Smith less, but that I love Bryn Mawr," said the junior as he invited a Philadelphia girl to the prom.—Amberst Four Leaf Clover.
